I know lots of people that could help you make this happen. This is an area where FirstMark (or any VC) would also be incredibly helpful from an access/capital/credibility perspective. We should discuss once you move resolve the FirstMark stuff one way or another.

BTW, are you guys in the office tomorrow? I could use some help with creating a "cold" wallet.

Hey,

I'm having coffee really early with Larry. We should be losing around 2pm depending on how busy we are, but Erik is away visiting his family. Ira and I can work with you, what time were you thinking?

I'll be there, but my laptop screen just broke. Good thing we bought that netbook for setting up cold storage wallets.
